

NMSU Study Abroad Scholarship Fund
Exchange, Direct Programs and ISTP
Please Type or Print Application Form
Deadline: November 15th

Eligibility:

- Must be a NMSU undergraduate or graduate student (Guest students not eligible)
- Must have sophomore classification or higher
- Must have 2.75 or better grade point average and have 32 credits completed
- Must demonstrate financial need (FAFSA completed and awarded)

Upon Return:

Scholarship recipients must choose at least one of the following activities:

- 1) Participating in the Study Abroad Ambassador Club
- 2) Volunteering to deliver classroom presentations and/or study abroad information sessions
- 3) Volunteering to assist with our biannual fundraising activity
- 4) Becoming a Peer Advisor within the Office of Education Abroad

Fall - _____/_____/_____
Year Name of Program Location

Name: _____

Banner # _____

Local Address: _____

Permanent Address: _____

Telephone (Local): _____

E-mail Address: _____

College: _____ Major: _____

Current Academic Level: __ Soph __ Jr __ Sr Current Cumulative GPA: .

Is a copy of unofficial copy of transcript attached? ____ Yes

Is a copy of Financial Aid award attached? ____ Yes

(Necessary to be considered for scholarship, can be printed from MyNMSU)

List below the subjects you will study while abroad:

What is the total estimated cost of your program? $ _____

List below the amount of financial support available for your program:

Personal Resources $ _____

Scholarships $ _____

Loans $ _____

Other $ _____

Study Abroad Scholarship Awards are applied to your NMSU student account towards your program. If student does not complete their study abroad program as listed above, the award will be revoked.

Please write an essay discussing 1) why you have chosen this program, 2) how this program will help you academically, 3) how it will help you in your future career, 4) what your greatest strengths are as a student, and 5) what arrangements you are making to cover the cost of your program. Typed answers are preferred. Please limit your essay to one page. Return this form to the Office of Study Abroad, room 238 in Garcia Annex.